Majority German Assembly Now Said to Favor Treaty

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
BERLIN, June 18.—The German peace delegates have drafted a memorandum recommending that the cabinet refuse to sign the peace treaty, according to a Weimar dispatch to the Zeitung Am Mittag. Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of the delegation, the Tageblatt says, will resign, as well as other members of the delegation, unless this view is adopted. The premiers of Bavaria, Wurttemberg, Baden and Saxony have arrived at Weimar. A pronounced movement in the ranks of the majority members of the Assembly at Weimar in favor of the treaty is reported in a dispatch received late tonight. Sentiment among the clericals and wing Democrats under the leadership of Baron von Richthofen also is reported as favoring it.

This statement was made by C. Norman Jones, secretary of the St. Louis Brewing Association.

READY TO ENFORCE HUN EMBARGO

WASHINGTON, June 18.—The War Trade Board is ready to enforce embargo measures against Germany as soon as word is received from the inter-allied blockade council that the Allies have agreed to sign the peace treaty. Acting Chairman Woolley said today that a skeleton of the war-time machinery of the board has been kept intact and the board could again put into effect immediately its war-time instructions.

CHICAGO, June 18.—Henry Clay Wilson, former wholesale produce merchant and realty dealer at Long Beach, Cal., was found tonight dead in a sitting posture against a tree with an empty bottle that had contained poison near by. He had disappeared a week ago from his South Side residence and the police had been notified to look for him. He was 51 years old.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—A motion by Senator Phelan to add a rider to the Agricultural Appropriation Bill proposing prohibition of beer and wine from war-time prohibition was tabled by the Senate late today, 55 to 31. There was no discussion of the proposal and consideration of it was deferred.

Map Showing What will Happen to Germany if She Doesn't Sign Peace Terms.

The Allied armies are ready to move forward on an instant's notice if Germany does not sign the peace treaty. The German armies are without airplanes, without material and would be unable to make any effective resistance. The Belgians, holding from Cologne to the frontier of Holland, are within a day's march of Essen, and the British, supporting the Belgians, would move forward and occupy the mining regions. The American army would occupy Frankfurt, and the French would take Hanau, Wiesbaden and Ulm.

West Prussians in a Rash Mood.
Threaten to Organize Own Government and Try to Hold Danzig.
Active Preparations Made to War on Poland, with Troops Massing.

[BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
DANZIG (Germany) via London, June 17.—The rich landowners of West Prussia will secede from Germany, they threaten, if Berlin signs the peace treaty. They intend to organize their own government, taking away Danzig.

Plans are being made to form a separate state of Pomerania, west and east of Prussia, of which Danzig is the principal city. This proposed change of government has been discussed at public demonstrations in Danzig of late and it has been openly suggested that Gen. Von Bulow, commanding the Seventeenth Army Corps, may be chosen King of Pomerania, which would mean the creation of another monarchy. Gen. Von Bulow, whose supporter is Maj. Count Schwerin, is in command of 30,000 Prussian troops which are located near the Baltic.

By that margin the Senate tabled a motion by Senator Phelan, Democrat, of California, to add a rider to the Agricultural Appropriation Bill for application of the war-time prohibition law to distilled spirits alone. The sentiment of the Senate thus expressed in the first test vote of this Congress was taken generally to sound the death knell for measures designed to permit the use of beer and wines under the war-time legislation.

Rejection of the amendment by the committee generally was predicted. The committee also decided to recommend enforcement of prohibition by the Internal Revenue Commissioner and not by a special prohibition commissioner.

Disposition by the Senate of the Phelan proposal came after little discussion except by Mr. Phelan and none by advocates of prohibition. The California Senator urged that the Senate's rules against legislative riders on appropriation bills be set aside to make his rider in order. As such a motion requires a two-thirds majority, Senator Grosvenor, Republican, of North Dakota, declared that interminable debate would be entailed and moved to table Senator Phelan's motion to shut off further discussion.

The committee has eliminated that section of the bill proposing appointment of a prohibition commissioner to have general charge of enforcement of the law, but has approved an amendment turning the matter over to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

The House Judiciary Committee agreed today to vote Saturday on a proposal by Representative Gard, Democrat, Ohio, which would authorize the President by proclamation to prohibit the war-time prohibition law in so far as it relates to the manufacture and sale of beer and light wines.

UP TO PRESIDENT.
Unless the President acts between now and July 1 the nation will go home dry with the closing hours of this month. No hope is entertained even by the wettest of the wets that Congress will repeal the war-time prohibition act.

Senator Phelan had been in the Senate all day waiting for a chance to tack onto the agricultural bill his amendment. He had no hope of passing the amendment, and the senators indicating their views.

When it becomes certain that the act, though the President himself will take any action to repeal the law, and having done so, those who are planning to use gas shells, aerial torpedoes and flame throwers have been between Prussia and Poland materialized. Munitions plants in Danzig, of course, are arriving in Danzig from various parts of the fatherland to study.

The Oberpräsident of West Prussia who has just resigned for an unnamed reason, is regarded by the Germans as a leading spirit in the movement to form an independent country of this district.

PARIS, June 18.—The German peace delegation at this morning's meeting at Weimar advised the Cabinet to reject the peace treaty, according to a dispatch sent from Weimar by the correspondent of the Frankfurter Zeitung. The correspondent added that the experts with the delegation also were of the opinion that the treaty should be rejected.

WILL SIGN, SAY FRENCH.
[BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
PARIS, June 18.—The French belief at the beginning of this last week of negotiations is that Germany will sign on the day or day after orders are given to the Allied troops to march.

One of the arguments supporting the French belief that Germany will finally submit rather than have the country invaded is found in the recent separation movement in the Rhine provinces. Whether the republic proclaimed by Dornier was genuine or not, the principle holds good that one great danger Prussia has to fear is the possibility that other German states may separate themselves from her and become independent. This applies to Baden, Wurttemberg, Bavaria, Westphalia and Saxony. Any one of these might prefer separating itself from Prussia if by so doing it might escape long occupation by the Allied troops in their campaign.

Furthermore, one of the devices which the French Foreign Office has had in reserve for a last resort is to offer a separate peace treaty to each of these non-Prussian German states. As they were put together at Versailles forty-eight years ago, France would delight to put them apart in the same place. In sharp contrast with the feeling of assurance at American and British headquarters and the French Foreign Office there is gloomy certainty among the Belgian delegates to the Peace Conference that the Germans will not sign the peace treaty. The Belgians are not doubtful. On the contrary, they feel sure that there will be no signature. They are even more fixed in their pessimism than are the other delegations. "There is in our opinion not the least likelihood that the Germans will sign," says one member. "By next Sunday you will see the Allied troops resuming the march toward Berlin."

AMERICAN LYNCH LAW.

The second count in the indictment against America has always been our comparative lawlessness, our impulsive and uncivilized habit of taking the law into our own hands. Pages of journalistic contempt have been poured on the "written law" as applied in the United States.

I have just read the story of an army officer who, on a far-off battle front, heard that his young wife was behaving indiscreetly with a navy officer. The military man gets leave, comes home, summons the navy officer to his house and forces him to strip to the skin.

Then the navy officer is carefully cooched with tar, and the military man is early in the morning is chained in this condition, to a tree in front of the Young Woman's Christian BEATEN TO DEATH.

A coal miner whose young daughter is employed as a servant at a rural inn finds that a retired army captain is pursuing her. The father hunts up the captain and beats him so severely that he dies within a few hours. The father is brought to trial for murder and the judge, after hearing the evidence, advises the jurors that they must pay no attention to the vicious theory of the unwritten law.

The jurors, without leaving their seats, find the father "not guilty." That also happened last week in rural England.

I have not kept count of all the murders recorded in the London papers during the last month or two. Most of them are committed by returned soldiers who found their wives had misbehaved during their absence and many of them are exceedingly sensational. They are sufficient in number to quite justify the Chicago papers—had they happened at home—in calling the world's attention to one of our justly celebrated "crime waves." The London newspapers make no such mistake.

One reads also casual references to the fact that in increasing and alarming numbers "auto bandits"

THE ISSUE.

It is a question of collective bargaining; for every man found had its own committee, representing the men in the shipyard. All questions relating to wages and conditions in the shipyard were settled at the conference between the management and this General Shop Committee.

Kane, joiner, and G. W. Lawless, pipe fitter. Collective bargaining—whatever outsiders may say—could not have been the cause of the strike.

WHAT SENIORITY MEANS.
It is not something recognized by the international labor organizations. The Company wired to Washington, D. C., in relation to it and received this reply:
"The international labor organizations do not recognize seniority matter."

What seniority does mean, and at the same time the principal reason why the Company objects to it:
Seniority means that the Company could not take back any sailor who left its employ to go into the service.
Seniority, unless vacancies exist. It gives priority to those who took the soldiers' and sailors' jobs when they were first offered.

It also means that whenever work was slack, the Company would be forced to discharge those returned from the service.

PRESENTATION CEREMONIES PART OF COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

CLAREMONT, June 18.—Notable among the events of commencement week at Pomona College will be the presentation of a number of memorials to the college library and the art and dramatic departments of the institution.

Two of these presentations will occur on class day, June 20. The first will be a memorial art library, including a collection of books and pictures dealing with the fine arts in remembrance of Mrs. Viola Minor Westergaard, deceased wife of Prof. W. C. Westergaard, of the college history department, the presentation to be made Friday afternoon at the time of the annual reception of the department of art and design, in Rembrandt Hall.

In the evening of class day, and just preceding the performance of "The Red Dawn," the senior class play, will come the unveiling of the Greek theater tablet. The tablet, which is of bronze, is the work of Burt Johnson, a former Pomona student, who is receiving wide recognition as a sculptor, and bears at either side two Greek figures symbolizing music and art; also an inscription to the college classes which have been instrumental in the upbuilding of the open-air theater.

On Saturday afternoon, following the reception to alumni in honor of the class of 1894, will occur the unveiling of the Hope Braitwaite Smith memorial tablet, in commemoration of the life of Miss Smith, who was a student at the college in the class of 1891. A gift of $200 has been made to Pomona by Mr. John Smith of Monrovia, for the maintenance of a reading-room in the library building.

On the closing day of commencement week, June 23, a full length portrait of the Rev. Dr. Charles Burt Sumner, member and acting secretary of the board of trustees of the college, will be presented in Bridges Hall at 4:30 o'clock. The portrait, which is the gift of a small number of Dr. Sumner's college and community friends.

GOES TO MEXICO. Monrovia Girl Takes Place in Exclusive School.

MONROVIA, June 18.—Pamela Villa and all his rebels cannot keep Miss Emma Smith, U.S.C. graduate and Spanish student, from accepting a post in the American College for Girls at Mexico City. Miss Smith, who is the daughter of Monrovia's school board president, receives her degree from U.S.C. this week and on Friday will start by way of Laredo, Tex., for the capital of the southern republic. The school where she has been engaged to teach is an American-managed institution that has for its students the daughters of the first families of Mexico. Miss Smith studied Spanish in high school here and has majored in the subject at college.

ENTERTAIN SUPERVISORS. VENTURA, June 18.—Supervisors of the county are to be the guests of residents of the Santa Rosa district at a big barbecue, June 19. The property owners of the citrus heights district are to be the hosts at the affair. The Santa Rosa Valley has developed into a great fruit and bean-growing district and the ranch owners there are urging road improvements.

MUSIC AIDS GIRL'S LOVER.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.] POMONA, June 18.—Blaming the tender love ballads of the phonograph records for the elopement of their 14-year-old daughter, the parents of Angel Silva, winsome miss, are conducting a search in an effort to undo what the phonograph did. B. E. Castro is charged by the parents with being the man in the case.

According to the story told by the mother, Castro never came to the house until they purchased a phonograph. He then began to call casually, but paid no attention to the daughter until they began playing the tender love ditties. It was noted in a short time that the young people began to pay attention to one another and then, today, there are the facts on which the affair had progressed much farther than they had suspected. Castro is 24 years of age.

PLAY POLITICS AT PASADENA. Efforts on Foot to Oust School Superintendent.

May Make Memorial Park Out of Busch Gardens.

Pioneer Woman of Crown City Passes Away.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.] PASADENA, June 18.—Members of the Board of Education who are opposed to the administration of Supt. Jeremiah M. Rhodes have been conferring with John M. West, County Superintendent of Schools in San Diego, with a view to inviting him to the superintendency here in the event they are successful in dismissing Dr. Rhodes. This became known here today, when Mr. West was in the city, conferring with Mrs. S. W. Odell and George Woolley, two members of the board, who are opposed to the re-election of Dr. Rhodes.

Mrs. Odell and Mr. Woolley have been advised in an opinion by Deputy County Counsel Ben W. Utter that the term of the superintendent should be construed to end June 30 and that the outgoing Board of Education should re-elect the superintendent. There are five members of the board and it is understood here that Mrs. Odell and Mr. Woolley will endeavor to get a third member, Mrs. Ruth Weatherbee, to vote with them in electing Mr. West superintendent instead of re-electing Mr. Rhodes. Mrs. Weatherbee has not committed herself. The other two members of the present board favor the re-election of Mr. Rhodes.

Friends of Supt. Rhodes say that the recent school election resulted in the naming of two Rhodes supporters for the school board and this should be regarded as an expression by the community that it desired to keep Dr. Rhodes at the head of the school system.

GARDENS AS MEMORIAL. Suggestion has been made here that the famous Busch gardens, which are to be closed by Mrs. Lily Busch's orders tomorrow and will be sold as a whole or divided into residence lots and sold, be bought by the community and dedicated to Pasadena's war heroes as a memorial park. Ernest H. May, president of the Security National Bank, made the suggestion today, and a movement has been started to carry out the project. It is proposed to have a bond election for the buying of the memorial park. Victory Park has been suggested as a name for the gardens.

WILL MARK HERO GRAVES. The United War Veterans of Pasadena have voted to place suitable headstones on the unmarked graves of any world war heroes who may be buried in Mountain View Cemetery here. The organization, comprised mostly of world war veterans, is considering buying a cemetery plot.

MRS. MCGREGORY DIES. Mrs. Sophronia B. Whitney McGregory, who came to California on a stage coach thirty-six years ago, died at her home, 845 West California street today. She had lived there for the last twenty-four years. Mrs. McGregory was the widow of Willard G. McGregory. They migrated to Montana in 1869, and after pioneering in that State came to California by stage in 1882. Mrs. McGregory is a charter member of the Order of Eastern Star in Pasadena. She is survived by her son, W. W. McGregory of Pasadena, and two brothers, Byron Whitney of Geneva, N. Y., and C. P. Whitney of Clifton Springs, N. Y. The funeral will be held at the residence tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

THE AUTO HIDDEN TO
BY BENT HAIRPIN.
A car was sold by Laperro to C. J. Jones, who later sold it to S. P. Babson. The car was then sold to Oliver by Babson. None of the owners removed the hairpin, but, according to testimony, Oliver removed all numbers from the car in an endeavor to prevent identification. A policeman testified that Oliver has been in State prison seven times. Attorneys for the defense were Mrs. Catherine A. McKenna and Charles Thompson.

Nujoi
For Constipation
Gone Are the Days
Couriers on horse back were good enough in '61 but they gave place to dispatch bearers on motor cycles when Pershing detached the St. Mihiel salient in forty-eight hours. Castor oil, salts, mineral waters, pills and such purgatives were good enough in their day. Today they are giving place to Nujoi. Nujoi is entirely different from drugs as it does not force or irritate the bowels. Nujoi prevents stagnation by softening the food waste and encouraging the intestinal muscles to act naturally, thus removing the cause of constipation and self-poisoning. It is absolutely harmless and pleasant. Nujoi helps Nature establish easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world. Get a bottle from your druggist today.
Warning: Nujoi is sold only in sealed bottles bearing the Nujoi Trade Mark. All drugists insist on Nujoi. You may suffer from substitutes.

S. S. S. Clears Skin of Eruptions. Drives Poison From the System. Out it fixed in your mind that skin eruptions, Eczema, burning, itching skin, and all skin diseases are due entirely to impure and infected blood. If the trouble was on the outside of the skin, by simply washing and keeping it clean you could obtain relief—not even ointments, lotions, and salves would be necessary. Agree with us in this belief, and your trouble can be relieved—you can be entirely restored to health. S. S. SNYDER'S POLICY IS DISCUSSED AT GOLF.

MAYOR-ELECT, BLANCHARD GOES OVER THE APPOINTMENTS WHILE PLAYING.

Mayor-elect Snyder is now at Del Monte, with Mrs. Snyder and Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Hagan. He will return to Los Angeles not later than next Monday, and possibly before that date. He intends to make a brief sojourn at Santa Barbara and possibly at one other point before coming back. At Del Monte yesterday the Mayor-elect confirmed the statement he had made for The Times last Sunday, to the effect that, aside from two positions, he actually did not know whom he would appoint to the various positions in his official family.

As a matter of fact, said Mr. Snyder, "I am entirely forgetting politics. I came here to play golf, swim and have a vacation preparatory to the busy time that awaits me when I go into office. My campaign manager, F. W. Blanchard, met me here by appointment and when we were playing golf on the links, we talked over the situation. I know that everyone is anxious to know the appointments I will make but I can honestly say at this time, that I do not know whom I will name. There has been a great deal of guessing but I cannot say who is right or wrong because I do not know myself. I have already named Ivan St. Johns as my private secretary and George Home as chief of police. The other men will be just as employees."

The report shows that infant mortality is lowest in small towns which have sewers, modern water systems and sanitation. In cities of less than 2500 population the infant mortality is 93 in 1000. TOO LATE—

FOR HIGHWAY WORK.

The assessment district map for the improvement of Pico street from Dean avenue to the western city boundary was approved by the city Council yesterday. The matter of improvement of Reservoir street between Sunset boulevard and Micheltorens street was referred to the Public Works Committee, as was also the petition for the improvement of Lexington avenue between Vermont and Kenmore avenues.

The Council granted permission concrete bridge across an alley in the rear of 6783 Hollywood boulevard, to connect an annex with a hotel structure at that number. Petitions for the severing of Sixtieth street, between South Park avenue and San Pedro street, and Sixty-ninth street, between Santa Monica and its easterly terminus, were referred to the City Engineer for his recommendation as was also a petition for improvement of Boston street, from Atlantic street to the southerly line of Opal street.

Romantic reasons reduced the fine imposed upon V. H. Wise, a petty officer in the navy, yesterday for driving a motor car without automobile over fresh oil on a road near the Harbor District, that was closed. The officer was fined $10, but immediately interposed an objection, saying that "if the court please," he was going to be married Saturday and would need all the money he could lay his hands on.

"You'll be in worse trouble then," said a man later seen for speed-

But the court said that under the circumstances he would reduce the fine to $5, leaving enough for the attorney.

LOCK OVER HEART.

One charge in the separate manslaughter suit of Mrs. Laurette Peck against Roy Jay Peck, a druggist, formerly of Santa Monica, filed yesterday is that he was so infatuated with another woman that he wore a lock of her hair in a pocket over his heart. He stayed out late at nights, she claimed, and told her upon his return that he had been with a little woman who can make her happy for me."

The Pecks were married in 1921 and separated yesterday, according to the charges.

RAILROAD TWICE LOSER.

Two appeals were lost by the Southern Pacific, yesterday, in the District Court of Appeal, Division No. 1, in the case brought by Jacob Scherrer, for damages on account of the death of his wife, Lillian Scherrer, where a judgment for $5500 was returned by a jury in the court of Superior Judge Myers. The other was the action of Charles R. McClure, administrator of the estate of Robert W. Guard, who was killed in an accident, the estate of which was the plaintiff, in the sum of $5000.

SWIMMING AT ATHLETIC CLUB.

Tonight will see one of the very frequent swimming meets being held at the Los Angeles Athletic Club when some of the best swimmers will be seen in action in the big tank. The event of the evening will be a handicap diving performance. The Walter Bell diving trophy is offered to the winner and all the swimmers are out to cop it off. Eugene Mahoney, Eugene Field, Clyde Swenson, Ralph Summerell, Dick Ramsey and Hair Priests are all handicapped for the event and no one can forecast the result. Another handicap on the list is the 200-yard breast-stroke race for the Ralph Davies trophy.

A big turnout is expected for the swim as the meets are growing better right along.

CLASH OF HIGH SCHOOL TEAMS.

Championship to be Decided on Saturday.

Pasadena and Fullerton Teams are to Meet.

Battle Promises to be Very Close Affair.

The last fervent uproar of inter-scholastic baseball in Southern California will be emitted Saturday afternoon at the hour of 2:30, when it will be found out whether the fighting Pasadena High School nine or Fullerton High's demon aggregation will be the prep baseball champs of this corner of the State. The big battle will be fought out at Pomona College, the diamond being better than Tournament Park from Fullerton's standpoint.

Anyone that knows high school baseball is in possession of the knowledge that such games as this one is an uncertain quantity to deal with. If the youths of either school are doing any swarming on results they had better look before they leap, as the outlook on the scrap is very one impossible to forecast.

Some people have been cracking up Fullerton High as the logical candidate for the Southern California title. They have overlooked the biggest bet on the calendar in Pasadena. The Crown City bunch are a fighting crew, and pushed on by Coach Harry Trotter, are the greatest go-getters seen this season. No matter how good a team is, if they haven't the "right until the last door is hung" spirit they lack the most essential part of the game of baseball. And Pasadena has it.

Fullerton is no easy proposition to walk into. They have been playing stellar ball right along this year and are all there when it comes to both fielding and hitting. They seem to be there a million. A Hawkins is the pitcher who is slated to hurl the ball against the red-sweated Pasadena team. The game against Alhambra last Friday he allowed but five hits and didn't weaken throughout the game in any instance. On the other side he can be said likewise that a very good fielding and batting team is found to exist. Webster, the phenomenal hitting hurler who, in last Friday's fracas against Huntington Park, struck out thirteen men and then slapped out a homer with the bases full, is scheduled to do the same kind of work day after tomorrow for Pasadena.

The Crown City nine is a steady team and very little up-in-the-air stuff is pulled off by them. The line-up for the Pasadena bunch is almost entirely the same as that played against Huntington Park, with one exception. Biederbach, the player who held second early in the season, but hurt his ankle in practice, will be back in the game strong, replacing Myers, the right fielder, as second too hard for Biederbach to handle, and his stick work is of great value to the team.

Pasadena, if it succeeds in this game, will then step into the Oakland Tech baseball crowd either here in this end of things, or up north. Coach Trotter rather wants to travel, maybe wanting a free vacation. Some no insignificant amount of money is tied up in bringing a team of fifteen or so players all that distance, and so Pasadena may travel up there, if they win.

They haven't as yet, you know. Another alarming piece of dope is shown when it is found that in a practice game Fullerton beat the Crown City team by a 6-1 score. Interesting fact, but not likely to count for much, as Pasadena is scrappy, scrappy.

The telephone being out of service in Fullerton, owing to the walk-out of the "hello girls," the line-up of that team for Saturday is not known. The line-up for Pasadena and betting order: Strickland, short-stop; Webster, pitcher; McNabb, third base; Rice, catcher; Long, left field; Atwill, first base; Lillis, center field; Biederbach, right field; Kemp, second base.

Jerry Abbott and Dick Hillman will be the arbiters, and expect no trouble from the stands at all.

LOYOLA ATHLETES LEAVING COLLEGE.

Two Loyola College football warriors, Larry Devlin and John Cronin are leaving there for other parts. Devlin, who is a 190-pound tackle, it is rumored is going to Santa Clara University, and Cronin will go to the law college of the same institution. He played half-back while at Loyola.

TOO MUCH REALISM.

FRISCO POLICE THOUGHT STAR WAS TRYING BADGER GAME.

By Edwin Schallert.

"I'm made, I'm made!" cried lovely Katherine MacDonald yesterday as she gaily greeted those Los Angeles friends who had gathered at the station to greet her on her return from a location trip to San Francisco.

"I acted so well that I got arrested," she explained, when the bunch wanted to know what it was all about and nothing less she explained.

Miss MacDonald, by the way, is starred in "The Woman Thou Gavest Me," to show next week at the California, and is one of the youngest girls in pictures to head a company, bearing her own name and producing feature films.

Her director is Colin Campbell of "The Spoilers" fame and the picture they are now making, and which is her second production, is called "The Blunder," a blunder being a society vamp, who extracts a living from the unwary in a manner not very far removed from blackmailing and the badger game. It was taken some scenes for this feature that the company went to San Francisco.

"And," said Miss MacDonald, "to go on with the story, I was stopping at the St. Francis and was waiting for a location arrangement to be made when my leading man, Roy Stewart, called."

"We thought while we were waiting that we would rehearse one of our 'naughty' scenes in the hotel parlor."

"And can you imagine! Right in the middle of it a big burly brute burst in on us. He shoved Mr. Stewart aside and growled at me: 'You can't work that stuff here. You're pinched!'"

"Well, I tried to explain, but he wouldn't listen. 'Bum,' he said, 'he heard about a lot of crooks actually getting away with that gag—in Los Angeles. But not here!'"

"Then Mr. Stewart cut in, introducing himself and mentioning his western pictures. And what do you suppose?"

"The officer recognized him and said: 'Tep, you're Roy Stewart, but you're working in a picture. You can't see a sheriff's too swell a looker to be an actor!'"

"Now, I really couldn't be mad with him, could I?"

"And just then, who should come but my director, accompanied by Eugene Roth, proprietor of the California Theater in San Francisco, and with them was Mayor Ralph."

"It was terribly funny ending, and Mr. Roth gave us a dinner by the way."

In "Full of Pep" at the Hippodrome.

way of celebrating the event. One thing I remember was what the Mayor said: 'Miss MacDonald, you may be in pictures a long time, and I know you will be a splendid success, but I doubt if you'll ever receive a greater and more sincere compliment than that of Officer O'Han when he tried to arrest you. It certainly was a tribute to the realism of your work.'"

Will Celebrate Birthday. The Orpheum is going to be all aglow next week, to signalize the anniversary of its opening. The actual date is June 24. Nine big special acts are to be offered to patrons of the theater, with Molly McIntyre heading the bill. She will be seen in a new one-act comedy by Lester Longman, called "The Love Chase."

No Sheriff, No Play. When "The Westerners" now showing at the Kinema was being filmed by Ben Hampton, a big man garbed in western regalia swaggered up to him and applied for a part. "What sort of part do you think you could play?" asked Mr. Hampton.

"I can play the Sheriff," said the stranger.

"The Westerners," said the stranger, "is a western picture. Do you call it if it ain't got a Sheriff?"

Not Civil War Story. The last of the war stories will not be heard for many days to come, and every returning soldier brings a fresh one. Robert Warwick, who is playing in "Secret Service," the Civil War play at Grauman's Theater this week, happened to overhear the following conversation between a big strapping negro about six feet four and built proportionately, and a civilian while in one of the eastern training camps:

"Huh," said the civilian in astonishment at the man's size, "Uncle Sam must have been glad when men like you enlisted in the army."

"Huh," said the negro, trying to hide a smile, "huh—I didn't enlist. I was done caught by de 'graft.'"

Pantages a Mecca. Almost everybody has been down to see the shimmy dance here at "Pantages the last two weeks. Here is the roster of some of the guests and their opinions. Mary Pickford saw the show and then said she never saw anything like it and that she wasn't going to learn the dance. Charlie Chaplin and Sid Grauman went together, and Charlie said it was funnier than anything he ever did, and Mabel Normand attended and then sent a request to Manager Carl Walker to have somebody come out to the studio and teach all the new steps. Fatty Arbuckle hasn't attended yet, but his opinion is anxiously awaited.

And It's a Fact. And this is what we have to face after July 1," said Bill Desmond, star of "The Mints of Hell," showing at Clune's Broadway, as he looked at a bottle of cider. "Look at that label—'Made of Pure Apple Juice,' and right below, 'Artificially Colored and Flavored.' You can't even be sure what kind of a soft drink you've got after you get it."

Took It Seriously. When John T. Murray, the chief comedian of "Maytime," at the Majestic, was touring in Australia some years ago, they had a bibulous character woman with the show. Through dint of guiding her money the manager had kept her on a diet of HFO for nine weeks. But the tenth week she turned up missing. She had one big scene in the third act of a harrowing melodrama, "Mother and Son," and was required to establish the identity of her son. Near the crucial moment they managed to locate her, and rush her on the stage—and they did all the rushing, for after her entrance was made she rolled on like a log.

"Look at this man," said the judge in the play, in a commanding tone, "and tell me if you have ever seen him before?"

"I have not," the character actress replied. "Never in my life."

"Is this man your son?" he said, hoping to bring her to a realization of the situation.

"No sir, he's not my son. Never had a son. So it's your trait judge."

Then they dropped the hook.

Nearly Became Prescher. It was a mere chance that caused John Charles Thomas, the star of "Maytime," the delightful musical play at the Majestic Theater, to enter the ranks of comic opera singers. His father, a minister in Philadelphia, had intended that his son should follow the same profession.

Real Bonaparte Garb. The costume which Otis Skinner wears in "The Honor of the Family," at the Hippodrome, is a real but Thomas was more inclined to become a minister than a soldier. It was a mere chance that he studied vocal for pastime, but the winning of the scholarship offered by the Peabody Institute at Baltimore decided him to take up a stage career.

The Simple Life.

Elmo Lincoln, who is now appearing at Ray's Garden in his first serial, "Elmo Lincoln," supported by Grace Channing, and directed by Henry McRae, attributes his strength to the fact that he goes to bed at an early hour each night, does not visit Vernon, and doesn't care how soon the first of July is upon us and he never "steps" no "chinnies." He is home every night to dinner with his wife, and as he himself puts it, he loves only three things in this entire world and he names them in the order of his strongest love for them—his wife, his pipe and his auto. Lincoln is a master machinist and can handle the throttle of the California Limited just as easily as Charles Fuhr steps on the gas of a motor car. His knowledge of locomotive technique is used in one of the episodes on the serial, where he races an engine with a motor car in order to catch up with his stolen girl.

One Note of Humanness.

Marshall Neilan, who personally directed "The Unpardonable Sin," now traversing the screen at the Hippodrome, is a kindly debauchee of an unpardonable sin in discussing his photodramatic work. "How did you like the scene from the writings of Nietzsche which appeared on the subtitle?" he had just asked her. "Only they did not do justice to Mr. Nietzsche. His attitude toward women was not altogether unkind. I cannot withhold a true compliment to the pure white pearl of sentiment he at one time gave utterance to, showing that German or no German, the spark of human sympathy had not yet flickered out."

"What were those immortal words?" asked Mr. Neilan, whose curiosity was slightly piqued. "With a little catch in his throat, the slip of a girl answered: 'Never strike a woman with a child in her arm.'"

Sitting up Spooks. And now comes the question of table tipping. If a table tips, who or what makes it tip?

These questions are seriously disturbing the peace of power and the league of nations at the Morocco Theater.

When Edward Vailor wrote "The Thirteenth Chair" he based the action of this greatest of all mystery plays on a little spiritualistic séance. The séance was held in the house of a woman who was a medium. When the Morocco Theater was opened, the leading woman, given the role of the medium, in order to get into the mantle of her supernatural powers, a real medium was called in. This plan was followed and the Morocco girls held a séance in Miss Woodruff's dressing room. Needless to say, it was a huge success. Miss Woodruff, Marjorie Vanine, Dora May, Lillian Elliott and several others took part.

They formed a very solemn circle while the medium operated the séance. It was all in all a very interesting and profitable experience.

But Miss Woodruff maintains that things have happened since the séance. She says that the next day she fell out of her bed, the next day a vase suddenly tipped over on the nose of her assistant, and the Morocco actress is going to hunt up a medium and find out who is trying to communicate with her and her.

"Western" Star Goes East. Mildred Manning, who is playing the leading feminine role in "The Westerners" at the Kinema, this week, has left for New York to command the most important picture.

Besides her role in the Stewart Edward White picture, Miss Manning is known to film fans for her success in the film versions of O. Henry stories. She has also had success as a musician, and her song "The Girl of the Ghetto" is being used in the musical accompaniment of the Kinema attraction.

How Jerry Regards Films. Geraldine Farrar, who is starring in "The Stronger Vow" this week at the California, regarding the photo drama as the most intimate form of the drama. And this is how the famous operatic diva supports her theory: The photo brings a star dangerously close to her audience.

For instance, one may see an opera singer on the stage for years without seeing her in a close-up. She is ravishingly dimple at the corner of her mouth; that her hair grows in ringlets; that her eyelashes are long and dark; that her eyes are blue and that her finger nails are exquisite. But in the photo, she is so close to her nose and all piquancy to her face that it is extremely alluring.

There are a hundred intimate expressions in the film version of the hands that can only be transmitted through the camera, and the strong action of the projection machine. And this is what the motion-picture actress must clearly and everlastingly keep in mind as she acts for an audience which is near enough to detect any insincerity of feeling or any sham in make-up.

Behan Returns. George Behan, the well-known character actor, will return to Los Angeles today. Mr. Behan has just finished a most successful tour with his production, "Hearts of Men," and when he rejoins the local film colony will begin work on several new productions, in all probability in his own studio.

Sought Authentic Reproduction. It required eighteen months to produce the film feature, "Super-Strategy," which is showing this week at the Symphony Theater. Elaborate research was necessary to carry out the technical details of the historical events from the time of the creation of the world. The story is brought down to date with the help of the latest scientific knowledge of the background behind the dramatic events which transpired in past ages. Egypt, Palestine and Rome, respectively, are the scenes of the famous localities that are pictured at the height of their glory.

The photoplay is being produced for the benefit of the Half-Century Association of America, a society formed to promote a high standard of citizenship, patriotism and loyalty to the government.

ally correct. In fact, Mr. Skinner secured it with much difficulty and expense when he was on a visit to France. It belonged to a family in Paris whose ancestors had seen service in the Napoleonic wars. Incidentally, it is the same costume which Mr. Skinner wore when the play was first produced.

Noted People in Play. Various prominent citizens of Chicago appear in the photoplay "And the Children Pay," which goes on at Quinn's Rialto next week. Among them are Judge Charles N. Goodnow and Judge John B. Newcomer. The courtroom scene is a big feature of the story of the play, which deals with the prosecution of parents in revealing intricacies of sex life to their children. The play ran for six weeks in Chicago.

Homecoming Week. Sunday night there will be a regular housewarming at the Majestic. Los Angeles theater-goers will have a chance to welcome back a group of old-time stock favorites in Lewis Stone, Florence Oakley and Byron Beasley. Mr. Stone was leading man for several years at the Belasco Theater. Miss Oakley was leading woman in several different local stock companies, among them the Belasco, while Mr. Beasley appeared in heavy and character roles at the Belasco's Burbank. Dave Hartford, another well-known figure in local theatrical circles, is to direct the production.

Fawley May Stop Over. T. Daniel Fawley, who is to start an oriental tour in July, may arrange to make Los Angeles his producing base, if it can be arranged to secure a theater here. Harry Siebert Smith, special representative of Mr. Fawley, is at present in Los Angeles carrying on negotiations. Mr. Fawley plans to present a lot of new plays and musical comedies, and will open his new-Pacific tour to Honolulu, July 10.

Washburn in Fun Fest. Bryant Washburn comes to the Victory next week in a smart new feature, called "All Wrong." This will make the Victory bill next week an all-comedy affair.

New Brockwell Play. Gladys Brockwell will be seen at the Alhambra Theater next week in "The Divorce Trap," said to be a picture of intense power, dealing with divorce laws.

Hackathorn Re-engaged. George Hackathorn, who has just finished with Tom Mix in his latest feature, "High Speed," has been re-engaged by Fox Studios for a very responsible role in Madeline Travers's new picture, "The Splendid Sin," under Howard Mitchell's direction.

Vacationing Near Catalina. Dustin Farnum, Howard Hickman and Beanie Barricade are taking a week off from making of pictures and enjoying a fishing trip over Catalina way in Mr. Farnum's yacht, the Junonia. Mr. Hickman has just recovered from a short illness. Beanie Barricade, who in real life is Mrs. Hickman, refused to permit friend husband to resume his duties as her director on a little sea trip as a bracer. Latest news has it that charming Beanie hooked a huge tuna, which nearly pulled her into the ocean. She turned the line over to "Dusty," and the big United States battle with the fish for nearly an hour before it was hauled aboard.

Scared Him to Death. Charles Meredith is now enjoying the somewhat questionable happiness of making love to a charming lady whose husband is closely watching his every move. While it is being done for the very worthy cause of a Brentwood super-productivity featuring Florence Vidor and directed by her husband, King Vidor, it nonetheless has a little comic moment.

During rehearsal for one scene, Meredith and Florence Vidor were seated together upon a divan apparently discussing the most interesting of all topics when King Vidor called: "Not so close there!"

Upon Meredith's withdrawal to a very respectful distance, Vidor said: "What's the matter, Charley? You're spoiling the whole effect. Stay where you were."

Meredith meekly replied "I thought you said I was sitting too close to Mrs. Vidor."

King Vidor took the laughter of the crowd back the camera and explained that his remark had been addressed to one of the cameramen.

Auto Wins in Walkaway. Friday the 13th means nothing in the life of a motion picture company or a Branton auto driver. The company in question was the Fred Stone organization, of the Branton Studio. Mr. Stone and his troupe of cowboys were starting for Canada to make scenes for his present picture, and had taken passage on the President from Wilmington, bound for Seattle. The ship was due to leave the docks at 10:25 Thursday morning. An automobile, absolutely necessary to the making of the picture, was to be taken on the same steamer. Through some mishap which no one can explain, although it is immaterial now, the automobile was not on the docks at the starting time. The steamer waited twenty minutes for the mere matter of a car! But it did not come. And when it did come at one o'clock it quite properly found the vessel gone. Back to the studio—a hurried conference. Then Mr. Branton decided the only thing to do was to send the car to San Francisco, the next port where the ship would stop. With a driver and mechanic, the auto was despatched to follow the steamer. The 100-mile trip was made at an average speed of twenty-five miles an hour, and they didn't spring a single break. They arrived in Frisco at 8 a.m. The steamship struggled in at noon.

WARWICK TO RELATE ARMY EXPERIENCE.

Through courtesy of James I. Lasky, vice-president of Famous Players-Lasky Corporation, Maj. Robert Warwick, renowned actor, who, six months ago, returned from the battlefields of France, will appear himself on the stage of Grauman's Theater at both evening shows, tonight and Friday. Maj. Warwick, who is starring in the celebrated William Gillette screen story, "Secret Service," at Grauman's this week, will relate a few of his many experiences while abroad, some of which are tragic and some humorous.

No other man on the American stage could have been a better choice for the leading role of the great screen drama than for Maj. Warwick, who, other than being imbued with all the essentials of wonderful actor, knows the business of war first hand. This is one reason why he plays it with such impressive sincerity in "Secret Service."

This will be the first personal appearance Maj. Warwick has made since his advent into pictures.

GODOWSKYS HOSTS AT A MUSICAL.

A number of local musicians were present at an attractive musicale at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Leopold Godowsky, 616 South Alexandria avenue, last night. Mr. and Mrs. Godowsky have chosen this method of entertaining the large number of friends they have made since their residence in Southern California. During the evening, Mr. Godowsky himself was heard in several favorite concert selections on the piano, while Joseph Rosenfeld, Oscar Seldin, Homer Trimmer and Mrs. Christian Trimmer played several ensemble numbers, including Dvorak piano quintets, the Czerny Frank sonata, the Brahms trio in A flat and Mozart string quartets. Guests included the following: Lill Pichnikoff, Cornelia Ryder Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ornum, Mr. and Mrs. Sessie Hayakawa, Dr. L. G. Visccher, Maxwell Karper, Joseph Ackers, Truman B. Mandy, Isadora Allen, Ben Levy, Stefan Perutz, Mrs. Sara MacNeil, Mr. Rosenfeld, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rosenfeld, Herbert Douglas, Frederick Clapp, Mr. Yvette Cornet. Those present congratulated Mr. Godowsky on his success in being the first artist from this country to be engaged for a tour in England. Mr. Godowsky is shortly to go north to give a series of master classes, following which he will make preparations for his trip abroad, leaving America this fall. His concert engagements in England will consume over a month in time.

FIRST KERRIGAN PLAY COMPLETED.

PRODUCTION SHORTLY TO BE SENT EAST FOR RELEASE.

"A Man's Chance," J. Warren Kerrigan's first photoplay as a Robert Branton star, has been completed, and will shortly be shipped east for release through the W. W. Harkness Corporation. Ernest C. Ward directed "A Man's Chance," which was taken from Johnston McCully's magazine story, "A White Man's Chance," published by the Frank A. Munsey Company. Clifford Howard adapted the story.

Lillian Walker appears opposite Kerrigan in "A Man's Chance," which includes Joseph J. Dowling, Howard Davis, Andrew Arbuckle, George Fields, Joseph Haskison, Richard Lorenz and Joseph Ray. Some exceptionally fine camera work was done on the picture by Charles Kauffman. In "A Man's Chance," Mr. Kerrigan takes a role which starts him in Boston as a young lawyer, and rapidly shifts to the romantic locale of Old Mexico where he adventures in the disguise of a Spanish noble.

"A Man's Chance" is the first of a series of ten picture productions included in Mr. Kerrigan's present arrangements as a Branton star. After a few days' rest the shooting production of the series was started. This picture, taken from an original story by a screen author, has not yet been titled.

ZOLLNERS TO GIVE MODERN PROGRAMME.

The unusual opportunity of hearing what is newest in the world of music will be afforded Los Angeles music lovers on Friday evening at the Ethel Clune House, the occasion being the first chamber music evening of the Zollner Quartette. At this concert the Zollners will play modern composers whom they have introduced to the American public. New York, Boston and Chicago have been equally enthusiastic over Mouquet, Milhaud and the others whom work the Zollners present when appearing in the East. The programme is as follows: Quartette Op. 3, Jules Mouquet; Quartette Op. 3, Jules Mouquet; Quartette Op. 3, Jules Mouquet; Quartette Op. 3, Jules Mouquet; Quartette Op. 3, Jules Mouquet.

CLEVER ACTS ON HIPPODROME PILL.

The new bill which opened at the Hippodrome yesterday is a good warm-weather show. "Full of Pep" is the title of the photoplay feature, starring Hale Hamilton, and the production lives up to its title. The story is one that vibrates with interest. The Jamboree Quartette of soldier singers offer new numbers. John Wild and Company, present a most amusing musical farce "Who's Your Tailor?" The Two Attractions are tumbling around in the vaudeville number "Park."

Waldstein and his acrobatic team are tumbling around in the way, round and round.

will be 50 cents a couple, and a good deal of the money will come out of the pockets of the striking electricians.

A report from San Francisco last night was to the effect that representatives of the Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, from Los Angeles, San Diego, Oakland, Riverside, San Jose, Vallejo and other cities, were meeting there last night to form a State-wide strike organization.

The strike continues in spite of statements from officials of the brotherhood to the effect that it is not officially sanctioned and that union charters will be immediately revocable if it continues. Locally, it is expected that the operators will all be back on duty Monday.

IN THE NORTH.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—A Coast-wide strike of electrical workers was discussed in meetings today and tonight of representatives of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers from all of the principal Coast cities, as an aftermath of the general walkout of these workers in California and Nevada. The representatives are here to meet tomorrow with telephone company officials following the granting of their demands for collective bargaining by Postmaster-General Burleson.

Calls here today were handled in some instances by men. A canvass of the situation indicated that the tie-up is more complete than it was yesterday, although fairly regular service was being maintained for the newspapers, hospitals, police and government lines.

Teamsters and other unions were said to be preparing a blockade of the exchange buildings by refusing to deliver goods or to transport strike-breaking operators or linemen. Many unions have pledged financial aid to the strikers, it was reported.

The biggest apparent development today was the general walkout throughout the blazer Nevada towns. The whole State service was said to have been crippled by strikes in the Reno, Sparks and Winnemucca offices. The telephone girls have no separate union organization, so have joined the Electrical Workers' Union, it was announced.

A girl and two men were arrested tonight in connection with the strike.

Miss Katherine Jones, a striking operator, was arrested, according to the police, for climbing into a milk wagon delivering milk to a telephone company exchange and dumping two cans of milk into the street.

Arthur Blumenthal, a mechanic, was charged with battery. He was reported to have struck the Chinese companion of a Chinese woman operator as the two were leaving a downtown exchange. He said he was not employed by the telephone company. Another man was arrested for refusing to move on.

Miss Jones and the two men were released on bail.

STRIKE MAY SPREAD.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

CHICAGO, June 18.—Charles P. Ford, secretary of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, said the strike of telephone operators and linemen in the Pacific Coast district might be extended to other States included in that district unless the demands are met. He attributed the trouble to failure of telephone companies to abide with the Postmaster-General's order permitting the workers to bargain collectively.

Three Ascensions Made in Officers' Company.

Data Secured is to Guide Fleet of Dirigibles.

Deviating from the usual method of observing weather conditions from the roof of a downtown building, Dr. Ford A. Carpenter, meteorologist and chief of the local United States Weather Bureau, made three successful flights with his recording instruments in a "free" balloon yesterday.

The flights, according to the officers of the army balloon school at Arcadia, who sanctioned them, were the first of their kind in this country, for never before has a weather forecaster ascended to the clouds in a balloon to record his daily observations. Also, they were the first "free" balloon ascensions made at Rose Field. All previous flights have been made in captive balloons anchored to the ground.

Dr. Carpenter, with Lieut.-Col. L. Mygatt, commander of the school; Lieut. Donald J. Cathcart, the pilot, and Lieut. Robert L. Lloyd, an army photographer, ascended at 11 o'clock.

HAMPERED BY LEAK.

An early flight was hampered when a dangerous tear in the rip panel was discovered as the balloon was slowly leaving the ground for its first voyage. The huge bag, with the gas escaping rapidly, was hastily drawn to earth and experts scaled the rigging to stop the leak. About 5000 cubic feet of gas had escaped before repairs could be made.

While Dr. Carpenter made his lofty observations, Col. Mygatt experimented with the balloon to determine how many successive flights could be made in one day, using the same balloon and the same gas.

He stated after the third flight last evening that he has made many flights overseas and in many sections of the United States, and yesterday's experiment proved Southern California is the most favorable country for balloon observation. Very seldom, he stated, can a spherical balloon, such as that used in his experiments, make three successful flights in one day without new gas for each trip.

Dr. Carpenter stated that, though his flights were not really official, his findings in the lofty air currents will give valuable data to those interested in weather conditions.

TO HELP PILOTS.

The charts he made yesterday will be used principally by the balloon pilots at Rose Field, to determine when they can make the most favorable flights. A fleet of army dirigibles will arrive at Rose Field within a month or two and the weather charts will be used extensively then.

The first flight was made at 11 noon. After the bag had remained aloft an hour and four minutes, it landed a short distance from the camp. On the second flight it remained in the air an hour and seven minutes, descending near Altadena. On the third flight, the occupants of the basket encountered a treacherous wind that threatened to carry them into the mountains, where they would perhaps have been injured in making a landing. Lieut. Cathcart permitted the balloon to rise to 4200 feet, where they met more stubborn winds. A hasty landing was then made in Gould's Canyon. Though the anchor dragged along the tree tops and the big basket dropped into the mesquite bushes, none of the passengers was injured and little damage was done to the balloon.

Dr. Carpenter states that the balloon trip was the most delightful outing he ever took. "I have participated in several airplane flights," he remarked, "and have experienced all of the thrills that accompany them, but I must say that I favor ballooning."

"We encountered various kinds of air currents at different elevations, and the atmospheric conditions were such that I had an opportunity to make some interesting and valuable observations. These, however, must be told by my machine tomorrow. Military ballooning appears to be thoroughly practical."

ONLY REGRETS LIQUOR DIDN'T REACH HOME.

Marie Campos, who was taken into custody at Ventura by Deputy United States Marshal Bell, was arraigned before United States Commissioner Long, yesterday, on the charge of shipping whiskey to Arizona. She was held in a bond of $500.

The woman admitted that she had sent two quart bottles of whiskey to her mother in Williams, Ariz., who, she says, was in the last stages of tuberculosis.

"The worst of it is," said the woman, in rather poor English, "my mother did not get the whiskey at all. It was seized by the government officers and the good Lord only knows where it is now."

The island was taken over by the government August 1, 1917. There are 1297 acres in the property. The Spreckels interests unofficially said it was the purpose of the owners to erect a magnificent summer resort on the island. According to the government's experts, the island was first deeded by Pio Pico to a man named Carrillo. It was among the grants the government held irregularly, but the decision of a Congressional committee, appointed in 1851 to settle this and other land grants, was reversed in the Federal court, and the deed held to be valid. Mr. Spreckels acquired rights to it from heirs of the original owner.

BIDS ON CHUCK MEAT.

The City Council opened bids for various city supplies at yesterday's session, and among the interesting items was a bid for supplying 25,000 pounds of steer chuck meat. It was stated that the city uses 8000 pounds of this meat a month. The price quoted was $11.50 per 100 pounds.

Teamsters and other unions were said to be preparing a blockade of the exchange buildings by refusing to deliver goods or to transport strike-breaking operators or linemen. Many unions have pledged financial aid to the strikers, it was reported.

The biggest apparent development today was the general walkout throughout the blazer Nevada towns. The whole State service was said to have been crippled by strikes in the Reno, Sparks and Winnemucca offices. The telephone girls have no separate union organization, so have joined the Electrical Workers' Union, it was announced.

A girl and two men were arrested tonight in connection with the strike.

Miss Katherine Jones, a striking operator, was arrested, according to the police, for climbing into a milk wagon delivering milk to a telephone company exchange and dumping two cans of milk into the street.

Arthur Blumenthal, a mechanic, was charged with battery. He was reported to have struck the Chinese companion of a Chinese woman operator as the two were leaving a downtown exchange. He said he was not employed by the telephone company. Another man was arrested for refusing to move on.

Miss Jones and the two men were released on bail.

STRIKE MAY SPREAD.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

CHICAGO, June 18.—Charles P. Ford, secretary of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, said the strike of telephone operators and linemen in the Pacific Coast district might be extended to other States included in that district unless the demands are met. He attributed the trouble to failure of telephone companies to abide with the Postmaster-General's order permitting the workers to bargain collectively.

Germs breed in the kitchen sink

Small particles of dish-pan refuse will gather in kitchen sinks or out of sight in the drain. These particles putrefy rapidly. They cause germs to breed and menace the entire household.

The sides and bottoms of sinks—especially if they are not enamel—should be scrubbed often with Lysol solution, which should also be poured into the drain.

Lysol

annihilates all germ life instantly. It is the standard disinfectant in all big hospitals. Hundreds of thousands of families depend upon it to keep disease from their homes.

Use Lysol systematically in sinks, drains, toilets, garbage cans, cuspidors and in dark, damp, sunless corners. You will then make a better fight against disease than it can possibly make against you.

Lysol is very inexpensive. A 50c bottle makes 5 gallons of powerful disinfectant; enough to last for months. A 25c bottle makes 2 gallons.

Lysol is also invaluable for personal hygiene.

Lysol Toilet Soap

Contains Lysol, and therefore protects the skin from germ infection. It is refreshingly soothing and healing and helpful for improving the skin. Ask your dealer. If he hasn't it, ask him to order it for you.

Lysol Shaving Cream

Contains Lysol, and kills germs on razor and shaving brush (where germs abound), guards the skin from infection, and gives the shaving a smooth, easy glide. Ask your dealer. If he hasn't it, ask him to order a supply for you.

ARDENT NOTES FEATURE CASE.

Former Hotel Cashier is Lost Love Suit Plaintiff.

Tells of Brief Wooing and then of Her Jilting.

Read "Lover Bug" and "Bugie Bug" Letters.

A $800 diamond ring, which Miss Gertrude Marie Hoffman declares was a matrimonial pledge, but which Frank W. Shultz says was a Christmas gift, is all that reminds Miss Hoffman of a rosy dream. As a result the erstwhile lovers were in Judge Monroe's court yesterday, where Miss Hoffman is suing Mr. Shultz for $50,000 damages for breach of promise. A jury, several of whom are women, are trying the case.

A number of love letters which Mr. Shultz wrote Miss Hoffman from San Francisco, in which she was his "Lover Bug" and "Bugie Bug," were introduced as evidence. One said:

"Gee, but I do want to see you again, darling, and love you and kiss you as we have done so many times. I am going to look way down deep into those pretty little brown eyes and see all the things you have been doing since I have been away."

Miss Hoffman also wrote to Mr. Shultz. She told him:

"Dear, I am beginning to long for kisses and hugs, and if you don't hurry back, I will just let the other fellows have them. I guess you must have a case on San Francisco. I think you need a good spanking for leading me on like this. My eyes may have that naughty look—"

NOT LOVE WITH HIM.

Mr. Shultz, who was formerly superintendent of the United States Post Office, and according to Miss Hoffman, has a patent from which he receives large royalties, testified that when he wrote the letters he would not call it love.

"I was merely flattered, but I changed my attitude when I saw her with soldiers and she told me of men who drove their automobiles with one hand," he testified.

Regarding the incident of a $100 check which Miss Hoffman said Mr. Shultz gave her to "buy into" the game for my trousseau," he said: "I gave her the $100 as a loan. She was to pay it back in December, as she said she could make $1000 playing lottery. I found Chinese lottery tickets in her purse."

Miss Hoffman indignantly denied she ever had played Chinese lottery.

CALLS JUDGE DOWN.

Her testimony was marked by a passion. With Judge Monroe he had cautioned her to speak "up." He also told her to reply to questions, but not to give her conclusions. Under the cross-examination of E. J. Fleming, counsel for Mr. Shultz, Miss Hoffman, who had testified she was employed as cashier in the Alexandria grill when she was being entertained by Mr. Hoffman, admitted she was a cashier in the Alexandria barber shop. She added:

"I am not ashamed of it, either. The court, who wanted exact information, queried:

"Right down in the barber shop?"

"You as much as insult me," exclaimed Miss Hoffman, with considerable heat.

"Who does?" asked the court.

"You," she uttered explosively.

"Now, young woman, I don't want to fine you," said the court. "It's no disgrace to be a cashier in a barber shop. Let us have no more remarks to the court."

Miss Hoffman testified that she had been introduced to Mr. Shultz at a dance by a prominent Eastern Star woman. He admitted this and says she immediately gave him her telephone number. She says they rode and dined, and went to theaters; he took her to his mother's home and she took him to the home of his brother-in-law, Dr. Will Langhorst.

She declared he proposed to her and offered to pay as high as $500 for an engagement ring, suggesting that they go to New York and live in a flat. Then came the climax. He asked her to come to his office in a Broadway hotel. He sat in a big chair, scanning a New York paper. She said she sat in his lap.

"He was cold towards me. I asked him what was the matter. He said: 'It's like this. I have thought it over and don't care to get married. What would I want with a wife for a boss? It is pretty nice to be single and not have a "bug" for your boss.' I asked him if he believed that after making me those wonderful promises. He said yes. He wanted us to be friends. He said he would take me every place I wanted to go. I said, 'Yes, I would be friends.' I wanted to see if he would change his mind. I had not gone around with anyone else. He told me I had better go home to my folks and just forget about it."

"That was the last time I saw him."

Percy V. Hammond, representing Miss Hoffman, will cross-examine Mr. Shultz this morning.

ON UNIFORM CHARGE.

Euval Owen, charged with illegally wearing a uniform of a United States soldier, was arraigned before United States Commissioner Long yesterday, and in default of a bond of $500, was committed to the County Jail. His preliminary examination was set for Saturday. When Owen was told what the bond was he remarked that a "nickel would be enough" to hit him, as he hadn't a cent in his possession.

SAN FERNANDO SHORT CUT.

The opening of a beautiful new scenic artery from the lower San Fernando Valley into the business center of Los Angeles, by way of the Silver Lake country, back of Edendale, was assured yesterday, when the City Council confirmed the assessment of $98,919.94 to cover the cost of this improvement. The time for protest expired yesterday and there were no protests.

The new highway will begin at the city limits, adjoining the city of Glendale, and will extend down Brand Boulevard, across the Los Angeles River at Ivanhoe, and through

TO HOUSE MAIL TRUCKS.

Postoffice Inspector Webster, who has had the matter in hand, received word from the Postoffice Department, that the bid of Orin S. Weston for the erection of a garage, with a capacity for forty-five automobiles and trucks, to be used by the Los Angeles postoffice in the handling of mail, had been accepted. The bid figures are not furnished in the communication.

The garage will be under the immediate control and management of Postmaster Brown, and in charge of a superintendent, with a stock clerk and a force of machinery and expert auto repair men on hand to look after the physical condition of the machines.

At the close of the active hostilities, hundreds of automobiles and trucks were shipped to the Pacific Coast for use in the work of conducting the business of the postoffice in the larger cities, and the machines intended for use under the new arrangement in Los Angeles are now in storage in San Francisco.

Of the entire number of autos and trucks, making up the forty-five vehicle capacity covered by the proposed new garage, thirty-seven will be used in the daily active work of the local postoffice, and the other eight will be held in reserve for use when some of the machines are disabled.

In order to provide chauffeurs for the machines a civil service examination will soon be held, but it is understood that the drivers of the automobiles now rented by the government for the delivery and collection of mail, will be retained in their present positions.

BACK FROM NORTH.

DRIVE FOR RECRUITS TO MAN COAST GUNS.

NOVEL "STUNTS" TO ATTRACT ATTENTION TO UTILITY CHANCES OFFERED.

To insure more rapid recruiting of Coast Artillery Companies at Fort MacArthur to full peace strength, offices will be opened today at 124 South Broadway by Col. Adna Clarke, in command of Los Angeles coast defenses. Moreover, carrier pigeons, free meals and bunk, and complicated fire-control apparatus will all be used to call attention to the excellent opportunities offered by enlistment in the coast defense command here.

Under Col. Clarke's direction, a complete plotting room will be installed in a downtown window, and soldier-experts will go through the most vital operations necessary in marking down, tracking and directing fire upon fast-steaming vessels.

Each day a truck will carry from the South Broadway address all men who want to sample army life. They will be permitted to remain at the fort a day, to eat army meals and sleep in an army bed, and then if they don't like it, they will be transported back to the city.

Whenever a recruit enlists here in the city, a carrier pigeon will immediately bear to the fort an order for the new soldier's supper and bed.

There are four companies at the fort, with an average of fifty each. This number must be increased to a minimum of 100 each.

"Fort MacArthur," said Col. Clarke yesterday, "is in a large sense a local institution, and we want to put it big on the map. It is a new fort, with fine barracks and the latest equipment, and there is no need of any soldier roughing it. And the Coast Artillery Corps offers the enlisted man unique opportunities. This war has shown that the Coast Artillery doesn't stay anchored to a concrete platform."

"In each company, besides ten sergeants and twelve corporals, there are seven rated men who draw extra pay. Moreover, there are many non-commissioned staff jobs. Most of all, every man who has any qualifications will certainly be sent immediately to the school at Fort Monroe and trained for advancement."

Recruits for the command are being enlisted at the fort, at the army recruiting office in the Union Oil Building, and, beginning today, at 124 South Broadway.
